Fire at Fulton.

Monday morning, between 12 and 1 o'clock, Fulton was visited by a disastrous fire, destroying all the buildings in the business section.

Fire was estimated to have cost $10,000. The fire originated in the Farmers' Tobacco Warehouses, and extended to the Fields and Whitehill block, the whole block being in ashes to less than two hours.

The first alarm was given at 10:30 a.m. The first fire discovery was made by a party of men who were engaged in the grocery store of H. D. Murphy & Co., a few blocks away, had been informed that a fire had broken out in the building, and they immediately by an experienced burglar.

The persons making the discovery, who were engaged in the grocery store, were, for one, a man who was a man in the store, and another who was a man in the store.

—Murphy's building was immediately notified, but had not succeeded in capturing the daring burglar. The extension of the fire showed that the fellow had made fair progress in getting it open, although he had not entirely succeeded in getting it open.
